About the Seminar

This National Seminar is a collaborative effort between the Central Institute of Indian Languages, Mysore, Karnataka and the IQAC, Demow College along with Research, Innovation & Extension Cell, Demow College, Demow. It has been scheduled at 19th & 20th February, 2025. Demow College, Demow, Sivasagar is a premiere educational institute of the region providing various undergraduate courses in Arts stream. Due to its proximity to various tribal belts and areas, the College has a large number of students belong to multi-ethnic community. As we know, Northeast India is a hotspot of the Indian sub-continent in various dimensions. The culture, society, language – every aspect of this region demands special attention. Indian Knowledge System (IKS) encompasses a vast and diverse array of wisdom, practices, beliefs and system that have been passed down through generations. It encompasses various fields including art, music and dance, literature, linguistic, traditional ecological knowledge, festival and rituals, yoga etc. Indian traditional knowledge is characterized by its holistic approach, integrating physical, mental and spiritual well-being. The objective of this seminar is to have engaging discussions and to bring a diverse group of scholars to discuss and share their knowledge on Indian Knowledge System.

Central Institute of Indian Languages has rendered yeoman's service by contributing to the development of all Indian languages, by creating content and by preserving and documenting tribal and other minor languages. Central Institute of Indian Language, Mysore has provided us modest financial assistance as a collaborator to organize the National Seminar on the said topic.
